7. Director's comments:
 - Thank you to the officers for work, passion and enthusiasm for kids. While a lot of organizations have floundered during the pandemic, the Boosters have continued to thrive and support the students.
 - Concert tickets have been given out. Distance learners may pick theirs up at the main office. Students have been trading them during music ensembles. Policing will only occur inside the gate.
 - Thank you for the many cases of water for the students. Your generosity is appreciated.

- Volunteers are still needed for the concert. Jim and Marie Roller will help hand out programs.
 - Students are working very hard and cannot wait to perform live.
 - The directors have planned a surprise for the students and families during the concert. The cost of the surprise is $3,000 which is 70% less than the retail cost. Motion to approve the $3,000 made by JoAnn Flickinger and seconded by Marilee Klunk.
 - The directors will be meeting with Dr Burkhardt on Wednesday 5/5/21 regarding travel for the 2021-2022 school year. This information will be given to the school board and finally to parents/students when approved. This will allow students to participate in fundraising asap.
 - Students interested in marching band need to read the handbook, sign the form and submit to Mr Kirsch. Parents must assist with this.
 - Marching band will perform in the Memorial Day parade. Masks and bell covers will be used.
 - Graduation will be held in 2 ceremonies. Band/orchestra and senior choir will perform at both ceremonies.
 - Volunteers are needed for ticketing and manning the merchandise table at the Parking Lot Pops concert.
 - If the weather is bad on the 14th (Outdoor concert), there will be a robocall, emails will be sent out and notices will also be posted on the website. Pray for good weather.
 - Mustang vision will live stream the concert
 - Emilee Stewart, orchestra director, expressed her excitement to be participating in the upcoming concert and is grateful for the support throughout her time at SWHS.
 - The board thanked the directors for their dedication and support of our students.
8. Next General Booster Meeting is Tuesday July 6,2021 at 7pm. We are hoping that this can be in person. An email will be sent out as well as announcements on social media prior to this date.
